

*Embracing Cultural Diversity in University
Lifelong Learning (ULLL)*

Open Access Learning Environments – outcomes of the 2nd Learning City Festival 2018, Pécs, Hungary

eucen 2018 Autumn Seminar - Thu 15 – Fri 16
November 2018- Barcelona (ES)
Éva Szederkényi PhD

Open access university - Pécs

- ◉ Facilitating roma students to pursue university studies, Department of Romology
- ◉ Senior Academy: 700 students/semester – formal and non-formal learning
- ◉ LEARNING FESTIVAL
- ◉ Inviting culturally diverse students to BA and MA programmes
- ◉ Inclusive university

Learning Festival - 2018

- OPEN ACCESS:
- 66 organizers, 115 programmes, 27 venues, 2018
- 69 organizers, 120 programmes, 26 venues, 2017
- To open public places (squares, malls, coffee shops) for community learning

Opinion 1

- „There are no doubts, that Pecs is a city of learning, with its great famous University. It is worth paying attention to the number of students, various faculties, and an excellent teaching staff.
- In turn, the region and its circumferences represent an important historical heritage that so skillfully fits into the modern city..." (Yana, Russia)

LEARNING FESTIVAL

Thank you!